

Koinonia Community Mission Statement

We are a lay Christian Community inspired by the life of the first Christians as reported in the Acts of the Apostles. We live as one family, sharing dreams, successes and failures with openness, building the bonds of brotherhood and sisterhood.

We are committed to the growth of the community and of each of the members and to the service of the society. We strive to counteract the economic and social evils bred by individualism. In our service we give preference to the little ones, the marginalized and the oppressed.

We are open to others; we look at the diversity existing inside our community and in the world as an expression of richness. We involve ourselves with people of all different backgrounds, finding in them, the very diversity the unity of our common human vocation.

We root our lives in Christ but also in the spiritual experiences and values transmitted to us by our ancestors. We dream of a time when Christian and African values will merge in a new culture, and will give life to a new way of being Christian and African.

An essential part of our commitment is unity building, or community building. Our projects and activities – be they in the field of sports, or leisure, or employment or the media – are always meant to bring people together, for the emergence of a fraternal life-style.

We see ourselves and all human persons as called to work with God for the establishment of His Kingdom.

We belong to each other – we care we share.
